Ms. Cvijanović Željka, President of the Republic of Srpska

Dear karatekas, dear friends

I believe the biggest challenge concerning sports nowadays is to succeed in helping children gain experience of the world and spend less time in front of the computer, by taking them to the gym, motivating them to work, guiding them, encouraging them to practice in order to become champions.

That is why I express my admiration for what you do, for your success in organizing this Championships and I am thankful for putting Banja Luka on the map of prestigious sport competitions.

I can assure you of my full support. You will always find openness from the local authorities in Banja Luka, because we want to stand by the athletes who practice or want to practice high. I wish you all good luck!

WELCOME TO BANJA LUKA

Based on the political and territorial organization of the Republic of Srpska, which consists of municipalities and cities, the biggest political and territorial unit is the City of Banja Luka (former municipality), which occupies the surface of 1 239 km².

As the university, economic, finance, political and administrative center of the Republic of Srpska, which is one of the two entities in Bosnia and Herzegovina, Banja Luka is the second biggest city in Bosnia and Herzegovina with the population of 180.053 (result of the 2013 census of population and housing units).

Situated in a valley at an elevation of 164m above sea level, where the Dinaric Alps from the south descend into the Pannonian Basin in the north, Banja Luka has a temperate continental climate with the prevailing influences from the Pannonian plain. It belongs to the Central European time zone (GMT+1) and has a temperate continental climate. The average annual temperature reaches 10,7 C, whereas the average January temperature is 0,8 C, and July 21, 3 C.

Due to many of its green surfaces- parks and tree-lined roads, Banja Luka is also known as the city of greenery. It is also called a city of young people, sport and culture. It used to be a strong economic center with developed industry-the machinery-,electrical-,textile-,food-and cellulose industry in particular. The past war calamities that struck the city in the 1992-1995 period and the post-war society transition resulted in the collapse of a majority of the industrial capacities and markets.

The post-war Banja Luka started to open up more extensively to market economy countries, directing its development prospects towards the progress of trade, tourism, agriculture and food industry.

The city's holiday, Day of Banja Luka, is celebrated on April 22, which is the date when Banja Luka was liberated from fascism in WWII.
